Question related to: Designation code (Protection marking)	EN ISO 20345-7	Other:
Annex: Article: 8	Clause:
Key words: Marking, model name
Question: Manufacturers often include the designation code in the model name. It may occur that the real protection provided did not correspond to the code included in the name (for instance, the name could include the symbol S3 but the model would only really offer S1 protection). This could lead to misunderstandings regarding the protection to be expected from the PPE.
Solution: The model name shall not include any symbols corresponding to protection not provided.
