Question related to: Fire-fighter footwears – Retroreflective tape	EN 15090	Other:
Annex:	Article:	Clause:
Key words: Fire-fighter footwears , Retroreflective tape
Question: If there are retroreflective or fluorescent tapes on the upper of fire-fighter's footwear must these tapes meet the performance requirements as detailed in EN 471 (ie the standard for high visibility garments) ?
Solution: No, but if they do not meet EN 471 (or have not been tested as such) this must be noted in the user information and no claims must be made about retro-reflective or fluorescent properties.
