Article:	Annex: III, k	Clause:
Key words: user information, conformity assessment
Question: What language version of the user information will be assessed in the framework of conformity assessment, when notified bodies carry out certification procedures for foreign manufacturers?
Solution: The notified body can choose which languages it does accept for assessing. Any translation is the responsibility of the manufacturer / authorised representative. It would be useful, however, to note in the test report which language version was checked.
